L. Brent Bozell III is a renowned lecturer, syndicated columnist, television commentator, debater, marketer, businessman, author, publisher and activist. He is one of the most outspoken and effective national leaders in the conservative movement today. Founder and President of the Media Research Center, Mr. Bozell runs the largest media watchdog organization in America. Since its launch in 1987, the MRC has developed the largest video archive in the world, which includes the popular NewsBusters.org blog site. He founded the Conservative Victory Committee PAC in 1987. His writings have also appeared in numerous other outlets including the Wall Street Journal, the Washington Post, FoxNews.com and USA Today.

Stephen Coughlin is an attorney, decorated intelligence officer and noted specialist on Islamic law, ideology and associated issues as they relate to terrorism and subversion. In 2001, Coughlin was assigned to the Directorate for Intelligence, Joint Chiefs of Staff. In 2006, Coughlin was lead consultant to Joint Staff J2 in counterterror threat. In 2007, Coughlin was awarded a Master of Science of Strategic Intelligence from the Joint Military Intelligence College/Defense Intelligence Agency. Stephen Coughlin is a Senior Fellow at the Center for Security Policy and a Lincoln Fellow at the Claremont Institute. His book Catastrophic Failure: Blindfolding America in the Face of Jihad was released in 2015.

Rebecca Friedrichs is the face of a national movement to restore the voices and authority of parents and teachers in America's schools. Her seminal lawsuit, Friedrichs v California Teachers' Association, which sought to free educators and all public sector employees from forced unionism, was argued before the U.S. Supreme Court but the passing of Justice Scalia resulted in a deadlocked decision. To continue her fight against the destruction of our schools and values, she published Standing Up to Goliath, an exposé of bully unions. She also founded For Kids and Country, a national movement of parents, teachers, students, faith leaders, and citizens uniting to restore our schools and culture.

Joel Gilbert is a Hollywood film maker, foreign policy analyst, and political commentator. He has written, directed and produced documentary feature films on the Left, including There's No Place Like Utopia and Dreams from My Real Father. His other films have covered the Middle East conflict, Islamism, and Iran.

Michael Gonzalez, senior fellow at the Heritage Foundation's Kathryn and Shelby Cullom Davis Institute for International Studies, left a 20-year career in journalism to join the administration of President George W. Bush as a speechwriter. Gonzalez, who joined Heritage in 2009, writes on national identity, diversity, multiculturalism, assimilation and nationalism, as well as foreign policy in general. He has written for numerous publications including Foreign Policy, The Wall Street Journal, Forbes.com, The Guardian, and many others. Gonzalez has appeared on Fox, the BBC, CNBC, NPR as well as many other networks and stations in the United States, Europe, Asia and Latin America.

Larry Greenfield is a fellow of the Claremont Institute and a frequent columnist on American politics and foreign policy. His columns currently appear at American Greatness and the Jewish Journal among other publications. Larry earned his BA at UC Berkeley and his Law Degree at the Georgetown University Law Center. He served in US Naval Intelligence Reserves and was publisher of the Journal of International Security Affairs. Mr. Greenfield was the founding executive director of the Reagan Legacy Foundation and serves on the American Freedom Alliance Advisory Council.

Richard Higgins is a Senior Fellow at Unconstrained Analytics. Higgins was Vice President of Intelligence & National Security for RED, LLC, a company that develops, tests and evaluates new combat capabilities for special operations, intelligence and irregular warfare missions. He is an expert on the nexus between theological doctrines and information age unconventional warfare and has spent 20 years combating terrorism. Higgins has advised the White House, Congress, and Foreign Governments on strategy, technology, and terrorism related matters. He is a 2011 Lincoln Fellow from the Claremont Institute and a US Army Veteran.

David Horowitz is one of the nation's foremost experts on the topic of the Left, their goals, tactics and strategies. He is a founder and president of the think tank the David Horowitz Freedom Center (DHFC); editor of the Center's publication, FrontPage Magazine; and director of Discover the Networks, a website that tracks individuals and groups on the political left. Horowitz also founded the organization Students for Academic Freedom. He is the author of countless books including a nine volume opus, The Black Book of the American Left and his seminal autobiography, Radical Son. His most recent book, Dark Agenda, exposes the Left's undermining of our religious institutions, arguably the most important foundational element of Western Civilization itself.

Lance Izumi is Koret Senior Fellow in Education Studies and Senior Director of the Center for Education at the Pacific Research Institute, a public policy think tank based in San Francisco, Sacramento and Pasadena. He is the author of numerous studies and books; most recently, he is the author of the 2017 book The Corrupt Classroom, the 2018 publication An American Education Agenda, and the 2019 book Choosing Diversity: How Charter Schools Promote Diverse Learning Models and Meet the Needs of Parents and Children. A former Republican speech writer, he has also written and co-produced educational documentaries, and served on multiple public service boards.

Charlie Kirk is the Founder and President of Turning Point USA, a national student movement dedicated to identifying, organizing, and empowering young people to promote the principles of free markets and limited government. With representation on over 1,400 high schools and college campuses nationwide and over 150 fulltime staff, Turning Point USA is the largest and fastest growing conservative youth activist organization in the country. A regular on Fox News and a columnist at The Hill, Charlie is the best-selling author of "Campus Battlefield" and was the youngest speaker at the 2016 Republican National Convention. At just 25-years-old, Charlie has appeared on CNBC, Fox News and FOX Business News over 500 times and has been named to the Forbes "30 under 30" list. His social media reach is over 100 million people per month and according to Axios, he is one of the "top 5 most engaged" Twitter profiles in the world.

Trevor Loudon is an author, filmmaker, and public speaker from Christchurch New Zealand. He is the author of Barack Obama and the Enemies Within, and The Enemies Within: Communists, Socialists and Progressives in the U.S. Congress, which became the basis for the documentary Enemies Within, released in 2016. A Fellow of the American Freedom Alliance, Trevor is currently working with the Capital Research Center on the film series America Under Siege.

Barak Lurie is the managing partner of Lurie & Seltzer, focusing on real estate and business law. He's also on the board of PragerU, where he helps fight Google and Youtube against censorship of conservatives. Lurie is also a radio talk show host at AM870 here in Los Angeles, and the author of the bestseller Atheism Kills, about the growing destructive force of Atheism. His upcoming book, Rise of the Sex Machines, is due out this summer. Most importantly, he's an unapologetic lover of God, America and Israel.

Pete Peterson, dean of the Pepperdine School of Public Policy (SPP), is a leading national speaker and writer on issues related to civic participation. In 2017, SPP launched a new initiative titled the "American Project: On the Future of Conservatism," a unique effort to address the future of the conservative movement. Peterson writes for a variety major news outlets including the Wall Street Journal, Los Angeles Times, and San Francisco Chronicle. Peterson has been a public affairs fellow at The Hoover Institution, and he serves on the Leadership Councils of the Public Policy Institute of California and California Forward, and on the boards of the Homeland Security Advisory Council and the Da Vinci Charter Schools. Peterson was the Republican candidate for California Secretary of State in 2014.

Larry Sand is the president of the non-profit California Teachers Empowerment Network – a non-partisan, non-political group dedicated to providing teachers with reliable and balanced information about professional affiliations and positions on educational issues. In 2011, realizing that parents, taxpayers and others frequently receive faulty information from the mainstream media, CTEN expanded its mission to help the general public understand the array of educational issues facing our country today.

James Simpson is an investigative journalist, businessman and former economist and budget examiner for the White House Office of Management and Budget (OMB), under presidents Reagan, H.W. Bush and Clinton. His most recent book is The Red Green Axis: Refugees, Immigration and the Agenda to Erase America. Mr. Simpson is featured in a number of documentaries.
